

Pursuing his passion over his profession, Irwin closed his law practice of 29 years to become a full-time photographer. From 2010 through 2013, he was a staff photographer, then head of the photography department of the Wilson History and Research Center in Little Rock Arkansas. Since that time, he has pursued his artistic vision. Specializing in highly detailed, artistic images of cacti and succulents, Irwin's images are widely published and collected. Publications that featured his work include the Cactus and Succulent Journal, Hasseltonia, Sansevieria, To The Point, and CactusWorld. In addition to private workshops and numerous programs for plant societies and photography clubs throughout the country, he's led workshops and programs sponsored by the Dallas Museum of Art, the International Photography Hall of Fame, The Huntington, the North America Association of Nature Photography, and the CSSA. Irwin is the longtime President of the North Texas Cactus and Succulent Society. He is Vice President elect and a member of the Board of Directors of the Cactus and Succulent Society of America.

Irwin lives in Dallas with his wife (Robin), one cat, two cars and several thousand plants.

Macro and Close-up Photography

Description: Enter the world of macro and closeup photography, a world that hides in plain sight. Capture those tantalizing details that used to dance just beyond visual recognition. Join Irwin for an evening of selective focus, focus stacking and just plain fun.
